

US Bank & The Urban League of Greater Cleveland

Present

“An Evening of Theater at Play House Square”

Celebrating Black History Month

featuring the award winning stage play

RADIO GOLF

In observance of Black History Month, this event is presented in partnership with Supporting Sponsor, Cleveland State University Black Studies Program; Participating Partners, Black Professionals Association Charitable Foundation; Consortium of African American Organizations; and Cleveland NEO Chapter National Black MBA to promote collaboration among organizations whose missions align with the celebration of the rich legacy of our collective African American heritage.

“Radio Golf” by Playwright August Wilson

A successful and idealistic entrepreneur aspires to become a city’s first black mayor. But while looking ahead to his and the city’s future, he is forced to reckon with the price of progress. The final chapter in August Wilson’s unprecedented 10-play cycle chronicling African-American life in the 20th century.
